MRS. GLENN ALLEN DOSS
the former Miss Karen Sue Moore

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Karen Sue Moore to Glenn Allen Doss took place at 8 o'clock, Friday, September 22, 1978 in the Hebron Baptist Church, Appomattox, Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgle Alton Moore of Concord, Virginia and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ralph Reider of Appomattox, Virginia, and the late Henry A. Doss.

The Rev. Clarence Davis, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal length gown of white Qiana knit, fashioned with a high mandarin neckline of Venise lace, with a lace and net yoke in both front and back of dress, all with a seed pearl trim. The empire waistline was outlined with Venise lace motifs, gathered at back of neck, flowing out into a chapel train with skirt trimmed in Venise lace, giving a beautiful back effect. Her veil of illusion fell from a cap of matching lace and seed pearl trim. The bride's bouquet was a colonial Williamsburg French garden.

Miss Kathy Diane Tuck of Concord, Virginia, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of sea joy green. Her bouquet was fashioned after the brides.

The other attendants were Mrs. Thomas R. Burnett, Jr. of Lovingston, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Dennis Doss of Appomattox, sister-in-law of the groom. Their gowns and bouquets were the same as the honor attendants.

Mr. T. E. Woodson was his grandson's best man and ushers were Dennis Doss and Timothy Doss, brothers of the groom, and Kent Hancock and Michael Elliott, all of Appomattox.

The flower girls were Crystal Herndon of Concord, cousin of the bride and Dana Doss of Appomattox, niece of the groom. They wore floor length gowns of pale print with colors to accent the other attendants. They wore flowers in their hair and carried baskets of flower petals.

Miss Ruth Stratton presented a program of nuptical music with Mr. Eddy Andrews, soloist.

Attending the guest register was Miss Patti Stratton.

Mrs. James Bondurant directed the wedding.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Moore entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Assisting them with the reception were Mrs. W. E. Bondurant, Jr., Mrs. James Stratton, Mrs. Charles Tweedy, Miss Michelle Tweedy, Mrs. John Routon, Mrs. Calvin Tanner, Mrs. Wayne Tuck, Mrs. Sandra Hillsman and Mrs. Chris Gallier.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed at the United Virginia/First National Bank in Lynchburg, and the groom is a 1974 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed at Commercial Steel Erection Co., Madison Heights, Virginia.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Concord.

MRS. GEORGE WILLIAM FEAGAN
the former Miss Karen Valora Almond

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Karen Valora Almond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Twyman B. Almond of Evington, to George William Feagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carey S. Feagan of Goode, was solemnized Friday evening at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 22, in Beulah Baptist Church, Lynchburg.

Rev. Edwood Orr, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Mildred Dennis, organist of Lynchburg, and Miss Wanda Beasley, soloist, of Lynchburg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire waisted gown of sheer organza. The bodice features a scooped neckline trimmed in Alacean lace with scattered pearls. The long bishop sleeves were capped and cuffed with alancean lace. The full skirt was trimmed with a row of lace and a pleated organza ruffle and ended in a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil was trimmed with matching alancean lace and decorated with scattered pearls. She carried a bouquet of tiny yellow roses and baby's breath, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. David Rakes, of Lynchburg, was matron of honor and wore a dress of maize polyester crepe with a chiffon blousan top, featuring a low round neck with the shoulder caught up with a tiny bow, with look of split sleeves. The full A-line skirt had a tiny belt tied in front. She wore small yellow flowers in her hair and carried a nosegay of mixed autumn flowers centered with a tiny yellow rosebud tied with long yellow ribbon streamers.

Miss Rita Ferguson, cousin of the bride of Appomattox, and Miss Debra Almond of Evington, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses matching the maid of honor and carried nosegays of same.

Little Miss Amy Isaacs of Lynchburg was flower girl, wearing a pale yellow dress, covered with white eyelet. The skirt with ruffle at bottom was outlined at the high rise waist with a band of yellow ribbon with a bow in the back ending with streamers to floor.

Mr. Robert Feagan, of Lynchburg, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mr. Eric Glen Almond, brother of the bride of Evington, and Mr. Kenneth Carroll of Forest.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall, for all the guests, by her parents.

After a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., the couple will live in Lynchburg.

Miss Cindy Forline of Lynchburg was guest book attendant.

Assisting at the reception was Ava Ferguson, Edith McCormick and Virginia Smith of Appomattox and Shelia Feagan and Shirley Snead and Pat Wheeling of Lynchburg.

Mrs. Thelma Wheeling of Lynchburg directed the wedding and reception.

Miss Almond is a graduate of Brookville High School and LGML Hospital School of Professional Nursing where she is now employed.

Mr. Feagan is a graduate of Liberty High School and is self-employed.

Miss Almond is the granddaughter of Mrs. H. C. Almond of Spout Spring, Va.

MRS. JOHN RICHARD COLE
the former Glenda Gay Honeycutt

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Glenda Gay Honeycutt to John Richard Cole took place on the lawn at the home of the groom's parents the first day of Autumn, Saturday, September 23, 1978, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLean Honeycutt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carrington Cole, all of Appomattox.

The Reverend H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father and given into marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of natural gauge cotton fashioned with an empire waistline and three tiered skirt. The neckline was worn off the shoulders, accented with a ruffle of antique lace which covered the bodice. She wore a neckband accented with miniature white carnations and orange rose buds. She carried a cascade of yellow and white daisies, minature white carnations, orange rose buds and baby's breath.

Mrs. Pamela C. Mays of Appomattox was matron of honor. She wore a floor length apricot gown of crinkled cotton, fashioned with an off the shoulder ruffled neckline and two tiered skirt. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies, minature orange lillies and baby's breath.

Miss Patricia L. Hudson of Appomattox was maid of honor. Her gown was mintgreen designed as the matron of honor's. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, minature orange lillies and baby's breath.

Mr. John Carrington Cole was his son's bestman and Irie C. Mays of Appomattox served as usher.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLean Honeycutt entertained with a cold buffet which was held in the dining room of the groom's parents home.

The bride is a graduate of Appomatox County High School and is a Nationwide Insurance Agent employed with Kenneth E. Franklin, Sr. Insurance Agency. The groom is also a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by Babcock & Wilcox Naval Nuclear Plant.

After a southern wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will make their home on Evergreen Avenue in Appomattox.

Congratulations! Dot and Oris!

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Webb of Route 3, Dillwyn (Toga Area) celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Friday, September 22, 1978. They have one daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Cowan, also of Toga, and one grandson, Frank Allen Cowan, Jr., two years old.
